IN CHASE OF CONVICTS

Troops and Posses Close to California Jail Breakers.

THREE OF FUGITIVES SLAIN

Two Buitles With Fatal Endings Reported - Bandits Change Clothes With Their Prisoners and Make Latter De All Their Work.

Enn Francisco, July 29.—At latest accounts the troops and the posses organized by the sheriffs of the different counties are keeping in close touch with the convicts who broke out of state prison at Folsom, taking along guards and other jail officials in self protection. The convicts are moving toward Coloma, where the citizens have armed themselves and are preparing to resist an attack. They have been warned of the advance of the convicts and will unite with the authorities.

It is reported by the driver of a stage of our time." which passed between Pilot Hill and Coloma that he saw the convicts walking close together. They were accompunied by men who were evidently residents of the vicinity, whom they had apparently forced to go with them as guides. A posse from Placerville, under Sheriff Bostwick, was reported not far behind them, following the trail.

Three Convicts Killed. The fight between the convicts and the officers near Pilot Hill in El Dorado Howard, a convict, who was killed outright, and the wounding of another convict, a negro named Scavis.

When last seen the convicts were in citizens' clothing, while the prisoners wore the stripes. The latter appeared were heavily laden with bundles and ammunition.

Information has been received of another encounter between the fleeing convicts and their pursuers, resulting in the death of John Allison, a convict,

Governor Offers Reward.

Sacramento, Cal., July 29 .- Governor Pardee has authorized the offering of $100 each for the arrest of the convicts who escaped from Folsom prison. The state prison commissioners have a standing offer of $50 each for the arrest of escaped prisoners, so this makes a total of $150 each for the men at large.

THE MOUNT VERNON MYSTERY.

Police Confident That Ebelt Knows

Who Killed His Wife. Mount Vernon, N. Y., July 29,-The Inquest Into the death of Mrs. Augusta Ebelt, whose body was found in a sewer pipe on Sixth street on Sunday, continued. In the mount Chief of Police Foley and his detectives will try to find the family with which, according to the story told by her husband, Martin, the murdered woman was to find employment.

The husband is held nominally as a witness, but contradictory stories told by him strengthened the suspicion that he has a guilty knowledge of how his wife met her death. Both Coroner Wiesendanger and Chief Foley decline to talk about the case, and neither will express any opinion as to the husband's gullt. At the hearing the parents of the murdered woman will be called as witnesses.

Cotton Mills Will Close,

Whitinsville, Mass., July 29.-A large part of the cotton manufacturing industry in this section will suspend operations on Aug. 1 for one week, with the outlook pointing to further gradual curtailment in several mills after resumption of work on Aug. 10. Notices announcing the shut down have been posted by the Whitinsville Manufacturing company here, the Linwood company at Linwood, the Saunders Manu facturing company at Saundersville and the North Bridge Manufacturing company at North Bridge. It is understood the decision to close was in accordance with an agreement among certain of the New England mill treasprers to decrease the production during August on account of the unfavorable cotton market.
